PROFILE

Design and creative leader with 16+ years in product design, creative direction and trend strategy, leading design teams since 2019. Directed seasonal design for 7+ licensed brands a season, including Levi's, Calvin Klein, Tommy Hilfiger and Columbia, plus private label for Target, Walmart and Costco. Led the company-wide move to CLO 3D sampling with Target's 3D Product Creation team. Industrial design background with hands-on experience in materials, construction and factory partnerships in China, Taiwan and India.

SELECTED IMPACT

Digital product creation

Researched, piloted and rolled out CLO 3D across the company. Built the international 3D team and won buy-in from product development, operations and IT: 66% fewer physical samples, 35% faster speed to market, 75% of approvals moved to digital.

Multi-brand design direction

Directed seasonal design across an 11-brand licensed portfolio, keeping each brand distinct on one calendar and factory base, and presented collections to licensor brand teams for approval.

Retail strategy

Led a men's accessories assortment assessment for Walmart, turning store visits, data and an original photo shoot into specific add and drop recommendations for the buying team.

Team building

Managed 6 direct reports and 20+ cross-functional partners. Built design guides and training toolkits for new designers and hired a China-based 3D designer.
